

THIRD LARGEST CONTAINER PORT IN WASHINGTON STATE!

The Port of Everett is a natural deep-water port, strategically located on the Pacific Northwest Coast of America. Everett's seaport offers two Panamax gantry cranes and two mobile harbor cranes to meet your container shipping needs. We have a skilled workforce, modern facilities and no wait times!

THE PORT OF EVERETT'S FACILITIES OFFER:

- Four shipping terminals comprised of eight berths
- Two, 40 long-ton Hitachi container cranes
- Heavy lifts using 100-ton and 150-ton mobile harbor cranes
 - 185-ton tandem lift capacity
- Five reachstackers with 45-ton lift capacity
- Forklifts and other yard equipment
- 110-ton rail loading ramp
- Ship side rail
- 5,000 lineal feet of terminal trackage
- Direct access to the BNSF mainline to the Midwest
- 58,000 square feet of covered storage
- 75 acres of uncovered storage
- 50-ton rail mounted gantry crane at our satellite shipping facility

